

Cross-ownership is anti-democracy.
Public debate in all our media is already limited to talk between like thinking conservatives who agree with the owners of the media outlets. We need diversity in the media. Not owner-of the all the media by a few dominating monopolists bent on increasing profits and not having any concern for the local public good. I am ashamed of just how blatantly ignorant many American news journalists are about true democratic principles.
